Director's Message:

Gail Upham – Sorry is not the word I would use when I decided to take on the task of directing this play. It has certainly been a fun and entertaining time seeing the cast develop their characters over the course of many, many nights of rehearsals and I am continually impressed by not only the casts hard work and dedication to their roles but that also of the crew and volunteers that work tirelessly alongside the cast in making sure that the play you see on this stage tonight is shown to you in the highest standard possible. Thank you to you all without your love and enjoyment of live theatre we would not be here today performing at the Beaver Arts Centre. Also thank you to my family and friends in supporting my choice in dedicating my time in promoting community theatre here in Holden and Beaver County.

Enjoy the Show and Thank you for coming out and supporting us.

Cast of Characters:

Synopsis of Acts:

Act 1 – T'was 10 days before Christmas in the Apartment of David and Samantha Tuttle. Samantha is preparing for a romantic, festive night in with David but.....yet again he has other plans. Natalie arrives to comfort Samantha which only raises Samantha's suspicions further. Natalie's husband, Bill arrives only to complicate matters more and then this Santa, what is he up to!!!!

Intermission

Act 2 – What with a Santa, a psychiatrist and a sparkly ornament it's only a recipe for mayhem and mischief. Then with a cop suddenly on the doorstep what are they going to do???

Intermission

Act 3 - That same night, with a lot of plotting and unknown identity, there is fun for the ladies but the men are not too impressed. How will the Tuttles and Weldons manage to clean up their mess in time for a Merry Christmas.....

Gary Kelly – I'm back! After my inaugural performance in A Bad Year for Tomatoes went so well, I was hooked. With a fantastic cast and crew and a hilarious script, I know we will have you falling out of your chairs laughing. Sit back, relax and prepare to have sore sides from laughing so hard. Thanks for supporting us!!

Crystal Hedeman – As a teacher and mother of a 2 and 4 year old, I found that I was in desperate need of a social life. Enter community theatre! I have Jake Tkaczyk to thank for introducing me to Gail and for encouraging me to audition for my first production since high school, when I was Meg in "Little Women." I have had so much fun getting to know this great group of people, and I look forward to many more productions together in the future. Thank you to my family for all the help and encouragement, and I hope you all enjoy my portrayal of Samantha in "Sorry! Wrong Chimney!" and have as much fun watching it as we have performing it.

Laura Rudy – It has been a long time since I've performed on the Holden stage with Beaverhill Players (that being our original production of Arsenic & Old Lace many moons ago). Since then I've acted in many productions with Churchmice (Camrose) and Kelsey drama groups. I've enjoyed helping with direction of 2 of our previous productions and have had a great time "playing" with this one. Once again Thank you to my husband Ernest and our kids for all your Help, Support and Encouragement. And a Big Thank you to the cast and crew for helping make this process a lot of fun. Hope you enjoy the show!

Roger Harrison – I attended a boarding school where weekend activities consisted largely of the students creating their own skits to while away the weekends, where I also began learning to play drums and guitar. I have been involved in acting and music to some degree or other ever since, including courses with The Other Agency in Edmonton. I play bass and sing in a rock cover band called Tabasco Cat. Last year I played lovestruck Tom Lamont in A Bad Year for Tomatoes, as well as Henry Perkins in Funny Money.

Ben Lutz – I am a retired gas plant operator and farmer and I live with my wife on our farm just east of Holden. We enjoy spending time with our 10 grandchildren, and also enjoy fishing in the summer. This is my second attempt at acting (first and last!) Thank you to the cast and crew for all their help and thank you to everyone for attending our show!

Donna Watson – I studied Fine Arts at the University of Manitoba, and teach painting and drawing. I also just finished writing two illustrated children's books. But I have always been interested in theatre, and working with the cast and crew in the play "Sorry! Wrong Chimney!" has been enjoyable! My role as Sheila is my first with the Beaverhill Players.

Dennis Cooper – This is my debut performance. I have been a longtime fan of live theatre. My earliest stage experience was playing bass guitar and singing in a Saskatoon 60's rock band The Grogg. I am an avid reader of Western Canadian history and have published two short stories on prairie life. At the suggestion of my wife Rae, I auditioned for "a couple of lines" with the Beaverhill Players... I hope you enjoy this comedy and the stage antics, you may never view the "long arm of the law" the same again!
